A Word from our President

Hi, My name is Alessandra Scotti and I am the founder of SmartCruiseTours.com. My mission is to bring travelers cruising the Mediterranean Smart alternatives to expensive shore excursions!

We serve excursions in all major Mediterranean ports. We provide both standard tours with predefined itineraries, as well as custom packages tailored to your needs.

We even offer great solutions for large groups of peoples, with experienced travel specialists dedicated to helping you determine the package of excursions that best meets your needs.

I am a native of the port of Rome (Civitavecchia). After spending most of my adult life in the USA, I moved back to Italy a few years ago. Now a double-expat, I love discovering new things to offer my customers, whom often become great friends as well!

If you care to know more about the fun and nice things I am discovering while getting to enjoy my home country again, you can take a look at my blog at www.MyPortOfRome.com

And feel free to drop me a note at a.scotti@smartcruisetours.com

. If you have any suggestions or questions, I would love to hear from you.

Ciao,

Alessandra
